

PREFACE	by Jean Graef	3
	Why I wrote this book and who will find it useful
CHAPTER 1	Search as a system	5
	Full text search is only one tool in a search and discovery system
CHAPTER 2	The SharePoint search system	11
	An overview of SharePoint search system components
CHAPTER 3	Planning & governance	27
	Why and how to create a governance framework and implementation plan
CHAPTER 4	Where to store content	39
	Pros and cons of storing content within the SharePoint infrastructure
CHAPTER 5	Basic setup	53
	How to create content sources, crawl content, and configure scopes
CHAPTER 6	Metadata setup	77
	Where metadata is stored, how to use the Term Store Management Tool
CHAPTER 7	Customizing search	103
	Search Web parts, metadata properties, Best Bets, custom search pages
CHAPTER 8	Customizing search results	103
	How to change the data displayed and the format of the search results list
CHAPTER 9	People search	127
	People search vs. content search, sources of people data, customization
CHAPTER 10	Content types	159
	How use content types to create enterprise consistency
CHAPTER 11	Navigation	177
	SharePoint navigation features and how to customize them
CHAPTER 12	Metadata integration	195
	Options for managing and integrating external metadata repositories
CHAPTER 13	Special topics	207
	Zero term search, audiences, images, languages, desktop integration
CHAPTER 14	Improving the search system	229
	Usage reports, quantitative and qualitative metrics
APPENDICES
	Table: SharePoint 2010 content templates	239
	Glossary	243
	Index	247